Stoneshire

Seemingly miles, yet just minutes away, lies a neighborhood fifty years in the making. Just off the beaten path, between Blowing Rock and Linville, rests Tynecastle, a village of Scottish descent. Within its gates, storied stone cottages and a castle inspire today's homes, and redefine Luxury Mountain Living.

With sweeping views of majestic Grandfather Mountain and the Linville Valley, peace and quiet abound. Stars and fireflies compete in nature's own nightly fireworks. Amazing sunrises are greeted by equally stunning sunsets. Deer and turkey graze at wood's edge as hawks soar above. Once there, you will never want to leave.

Crafted with hardwoods reclaimed from Tynecastle, "Stoneshire" has been custom created in every detail, from conception to completion. Massive timber beams, soaring ceilings, dramatic stone fireplaces, gazebo with a beautiful copper roof and cozy outdoor stone fireplace, heated Travertine floors, custom cabinetry and top-of-the-line appliances; no detail has been left unattended.

Nestled at the foot of Grandfather Mountain on 2.5 acres in a 500 acre development, "Stoneshire", is truly living for the few.
